Keeping the Records Are . . .

UPPER LEFT: Mrs. Mae Wiese, receptionist and switchboard secretary.

MIDDLE LEFT: Mrs. DyAnn Jordan, secretary to Mrs. Lorraine Keehner, and Mrs. Marge Thiering, Elementary Education secretary.

LOWER CENTER: Mrs. Bonnie Kohler, guidance secretary.

LOWER RIGHT: Mrs. Betty Stamer, R.N., school nurse.

Imagine Serving 500!

Head cook, Myra Lantau, is busy with early morning preparations of the day's lunch.

A job like this takes more than one! Edna Marshall and Marion Kelley assist Mrs. Lantau.

Well, that makes 300 sandwiches. Now Mae Vetter and Antionette DeCock only have 200 more to make!

Maintenance Staff

The smile on Mr. Bernard Frimml's face is indicative of the fact that he has finished mopping the hall. He is superintendent of building and grounds.

When the students are gone and the building is deserted by students and teachers Mr. Martin Anderson cleans the floors of the classrooms.

Mr. Ralph Madden cleans the floors and straightens the chairs after a day of classes.

Mr. Royal Siemers empties the "circular files" of their endless supply of old assignments and tests.

Senior Boys Help Transport Students

Responsible for the transporting of 300 students to and from school are student bus drivers Steve Johnston, Calvin Little, and Dennis Gruenhagen. Not pictured are Gerry DeSchepper and Dale DeCock. These boys give up from four to five hours a day for their bus routes. Cal Little and Steve Johnston also drive activities' buses. These boys were all carefully trained in a course provided last year for future bus drivers.

Bus mechanics Lloyd Keppy, Walter Glunz, and Eldon Glunz keep the school system's 36 bus routes running smoothly. Traveling a total of 1,300 miles a day over the system's 210 square mile area, the buses transport 95 per cent of the district's approximate 2,000 students.

The Class of '65

Lynne Wiese and Karen Marten admire the Senior Gift of the Class of '65.

The high school diploma was considered something far in the future in September 1961 when the class of '65 entered the ranks of high school freshmen. It was a relief not to be called "a junior high kid," but that was soon replaced by being "just a freshman." As a sophomore, the real "fun" was beginning. One could now be more active in sports, school organizations, and school parties. Of course the junior year cannot be forgotten. This was the year that classmates worked together for the prom, "Moonlight and Roses." Then, the senior year arrived. All were kept so busy that the time elapsed quickly. Some outstanding activities included painting the town at Homecoming, our football victory over Bettendorf, a second in the state wrestling tournament, the purchasing of an activity directory for the lobby as a senior gift, the Junior-Senior Prom, "Sayonara," the cold senior class picnic, and of course, Commencement. The high school diploma, placed into each graduate's hand on May 28, 1965, symbolized personal accomplishment--accomplishment in the field of learning. It symbolized knowledge offered by teachers and accepted with a personal ambition to learn. The future challenges the graduating class of 1965 to make this knowledge power.

JUNIORS

Juniors Plan Prom

Dee Dee Oster, Connie Ney, and Doris Kincaid put final touches on "Sayonara".

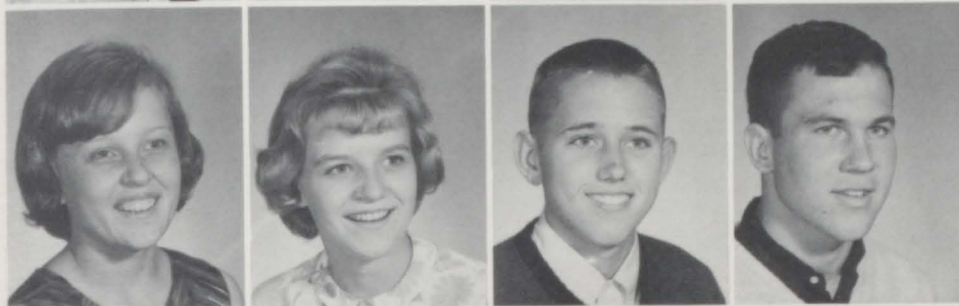

The largest portion of the time, money, and effort of the Junior Class was put into the presentation of "Sayonara", the 1965 Prom. Money was raised through the assessment of class dues and the sponsoring of a car wash. For the first time in the history of North Scott, a post-game dance, sponsored by the juniors, featured a popular combo, "The Epics". This, in addition to two other dances, rounded out the year's activities for the Class of '66.

Student Council Leads N.S.

The Student Council, composed of five delegates from each class and the four class presidents, was responsible for many of the year's activities. Under its direction plans for the Homecoming festivities were carried out, and through magazine sales money was raised to support a future foreign exchange student. For the first time in the school's history, North Scott became a member of the Quint-City Student Congress.

The nucleus of the Student Council is its officers, under the direction of Mr. Ed Fischer, Assistant Principal. John Moffit, Treasurer; Sandy Tombergs, Secretary; Pat Tiedemann, Vice-President; Roger Kirby, President.

Queen Betty Hoffmann, with flower girls Joni Hoffmann and Gwen Tombergs, reigns amid the festivities.

The Marching Lancers

The Lancer Band, under the direction of Arthur Schultz, represented North Scott many times throughout the year. In August the band marched in Waterloo, and in October it traveled to West Branch to march in conjunction with the State Legion Convention. The band also participated in Davenport's Legion Parade on Veteran's Day and in the Memorial Day Parade in Eldridge. Perhaps its most recognized performances were at North Scott's four home football games in which black light and fire baton routines were highlighted.

Band Goes on Tour . .

Learning scales, making money, learning scales, coming to additional rehearsals, and learning more scales were worthwhile efforts for the members of the North Scott Concert Band. The reward for their efforts was a tour of northern Iowa on May 12, 13, and 14. Concerts were presented to high school students at Clarence, Springville, Cresco, and New Hartford. Highlights of the tour were spending an evening with Cresco students, touring the campus at the State College of Iowa, and staying at the Waterloo Holiday Inn on the last night of the trip. In addition to this trip, the band presented a Christmas Concert and a Spring Concert at North Scott. The Concert Band is under the direction of Mr. Arthur Schultz.

"Sleigh Bells Ring" was the theme of the Christmas Ball held December 19, 1965. The new King and Queen were announced and the royal court presented. To be eligible for Christmas Ball royalty, it is mandatory that one be a member of the FFA and FHA. Only the members of these organizations voted for the top six and then each person attending the dance received a ballot to vote for king and queen.

"Fashions on Trial"

"Fashions on Trial" was the theme of the 1964-65 annual style review sponsored by the Future Homemakers of America and the North Scott home economics classes. Approximately 65 high school girls and six children modeled fashions in the show. The outfits were presented in a court room setting with Joyce Matzen, a senior, acting as the judge. Diane Doerschler and Darlene Engler were the attorneys. Karen Marten presented the girls and described the fashions to the audience.

Linda Johnston and Cheryl Rindler model their appropriate dress for church and best wear.

Lois Kunde is ready for a quick game of tennis in her sports wear.

Barb Peterson and her younger sister are dressed in their Sunday best.

Talented Tutors Present:

Larry Wedeking, M.C. , collapses with the effort of repeating the station's call letters: NSCSWHSFAESFEPMMDDMTLG WBSAG-ELGWLGL 1-2-3-4-5-6-7-8-9-10.

Alley Cats Bill Banks and Louis White provide slapstick and bellytickling humor, to themselves that is.

The new Blue Yeah Yeah (Cheer) is tested against another detergent to see which produces the "wider" wash.

"Supertarzan" doesn't like the way Jane has fixed his supper.

Contestants Ben Beh and Leon Fox on "Truth or Consequences" have a hot race for the prize.

Television Tickling Terrific

The fifth annual "Talented Tutors" was again produced and directed by the members of the North Scott Education Association. This project is sponsored by the teachers to raise money for scholarships to be given to two graduating seniors who plan to go into teaching. Enough money was raised this year to award two $300 scholarships, which were given to Kathy Kunde and Betty Hoffmann.

Kathy Kunde

Betty Hoffmann

The guests appearing on the "I've Got a Secret" show were amazed by the brilliant questioning by the famous panel members: The Professor, Miss Betsy Ross, Mr. Bull Cullen, and Miss Mess Myerson.

"Mr. Slovak" pleads for understanding with a parent of one of his prize pupils. The subject under discussion is "Macbeth."

The "Country Corn Flakes" commercial was pantomimed in true "corny" fashion by Ruth Smith, English teacher, and Don Anderson, high school principal. They were the evening's highlight and brought the house down.

Juniors Present

Peg Keehner and Barb Engel are transported in style by Mike Reedy and his rickshaw. Looking on are Rick Stoltenberg and Barb's escort.

Susan Keppy and Phil Long pause for a moment on the scenic Oriental bridge.

Patti Frye and Alan Mohr dance to the music of the "Ambassadors."

Richard Blanche and Doris Kincaid toss pennies into the wishing well.

"Sayonara"

Seniors Barb Schultz, John Plambeck, Lorna Madden, and Bill Lillis seem to be enjoying their Prom.

Liz Porter and Glen Keppy relax for a moment at one of the tables.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Heiler are surrounded by cherry blossoms.

Stopping at one of the points of interest are Allen Litscher, Jan Elmegreen, Jerry Vollbeer, and Jane Lage.

Students Receive Recognition

Awards for outstanding ability in book-keeping were given to N. Schnoor, M. Weiskopf, M. Schafer, J. Thomsen. Row 2: B. Hoffman, B. Lillis, S. Grell, Grell, P. Rohwer.

Receiving outstanding scores on ten minute timed writings were Joyce Fleischman and Betty Hoffman.

In a series of 5 min. timed writings in Typing I Doris Schnekloth and Marcia Rock ranked high.

Ed Helble received the Bausch and Lomb Honorary Science Award for outstanding work in science for four years.

Juniors, Barb Engel, Gary Anderson, and Betty Henningsen received certificates for attending the Science Symposium at S.U.I. Gary also received the Math Award for the highest score at N.S. on the annual math test.

For two consecutive years Caryl Dierksen has ranked high on the United Nation Test. For being first in Scott County she won a trip to New York.

FFA awards were given to the following boys: John Plambeck for public speaking; Glen Keppy for farm mechanics; Loren Engelbrecht for Star Chap. Farmer, Ed Schnekloth for farm electrification, Dave Litscher for Star Chapter Greenhand, and Mike Freund for livestock farming.

Bonnie Oetzmman received the Crisco Award which is given to the outstanding girl in home economics.

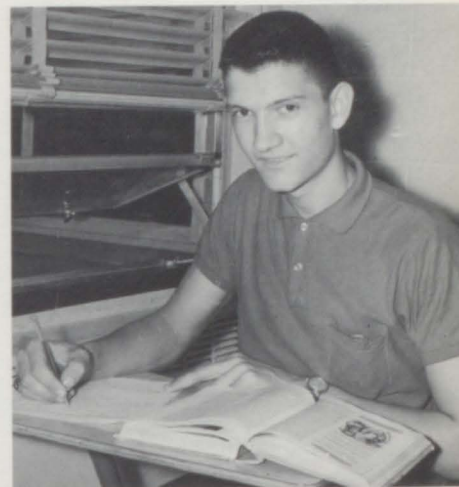

For her high score on the Betty Crocker Test, Lois Kuhl received the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow Award.

at Annual Awards Assembly

Student director awards were given to Liz Porter and Linda Meyer for "The Remarkable Incident at Carson Corners," and Cheryl Rindler and Cindy Baetke for "I Remember Mama."

Steve Engler received the award for outstanding achievement backstage in helping with dramatic presentations.

Receiving recognition for outstanding speech work were Dori Kincaid, Janis Feldpausch, Pam Dismer, and Cheryl Rindler. Not pictured is Karen Looney.

Special distinction was given to Ann Suiter and Ken Keppy in the field of acting.

Donovan Peeters received second place at N.S. on the United Nations Test.

Pat Tiedemann and Linda Lagoni leave school on Casual Day dressed ready to study.

Students Enjoy Casual Day

Barb Wulf, Julie Beert, and Peg Marquardt arrive at school ready for a day of "casual" classes.

Pat Gast, Glorianne Mossage, and Bonnie Oetzmänn feeling "cool and comfy" pose for a picture on Casual Day.

Lorna Madden, Susan Keppy, Tim Carlin, and Charlotte Keppy take a moment from typing copy for the LANCE to relax on Casual Day.

Barb Engel, Jim Holst, and Sharon Krenz find it easy to work on Prom decorations dressed casually.

Gridders Triumph in Homecoming Victory

The North Scott Lancers opened their football season with their annual "Get Acquainted Night." A program was held in the gymnasium with the Lancers demonstrating use of equipment and running a series of plays. The program was then relayed to the North Scott gridiron where the Lancers fought to a 13-13 tie with the 1962-63 alumni. Coaches Roy Oles and Dick Snyders had a squad of 28 gridders with eight returning lettermen.

One of the highlights of the season was the 27-0 Homecoming victory over favored Camanche. Team members were especially proud of Phil Long when he was chosen Times-Democrat Prep of the Week for his outstanding offensive play against Bettendorf on September 11. Long carried the ball 31 times for a total gain of 155 yards. Long was also voted "Most Valuable Player" by his teammates. Leading the '65 team were co-captains John Shannon and Roger Kirby.
